WHEREAS, every member of the state government at any level should constantly strive to spend tax money in the most efficient, cost-effective manner possible; and § 8-4-404.

Through press releases, public service announcements, or other appropriate public information activities, the office of the comptroller of the treasury shall attempt to educate both private citizens and public employees of the availability of a mechanism to report, and the responsibilities of the office of the comptroller of the treasury to review, allegations of fraud, waste, or abuse of public funds.

(a) The office of the comptroller of the treasury shall review all telephone calls received on the toll-free hotline number pursuant to this part and shall maintain a record of each meritorious call involving an activity related to state agency or community grant supported services.
